

ABSTRACT

5        This invention relates to metallocene catalyst compositions which are highly active for the polymerization of olefins, particularly prochiral  $\alpha$ -olefins. The catalyst compositions contain at least one metallocene, and least one activator and a support that has been fluorided using a fluoride containing compound.

2017-03-20 16:36:00